"In One Instant accomplishes the very important job of teaching our students how to make smart choices, how to stay alive, how to stay safe, how to take care of each other. That's the most important gift you can give to a school."

- High School Administrator

"I lost three friends from drunk and distracted driving. I wish we could have brought this program to my school sooner, it could have made a difference and saved those lives."

- High School Student

"In One Instant is a well conceived intervention that effectively informs young adult decision-making. This groundbreaking program has demonstrated its ability to positively impact teens. It is helping to save lives and prevent tragic driving collisions."

- U.S. Congressman Ted Lieu
